RULES & GENERAL INFORMATION

- Races are held under the IKSA rules and the regulations of the German Footbike Association (DTRV). Any ambiguities are resolved by the Race Director.
- Timing is electronic via transponders.
- The Saturday criterium is simultaneously contested as the Open German Footbike Championship.
- Protests must be submitted within 20 minutes of results publication.
- Race numbers must be mounted on the handlebars, unfolded and clearly legible. This may be checked by the jury.
- The transponder must be attached to the front fork. Lost transponders will be charged to the rider.
- Starting grids are organised in rows based on prior results. Sunday grids are based on Saturday's results.
- Race finish rule: a race ends when the leader completes the prescribed number of laps; all other riders finish the same lap. When age groups share a start, the race ends with the overall leader. Men's, Women's, and Youth races that share a start are ended separately. This rule does not apply to the relay.
- The organiser may carry out doping and alcohol tests.

- Participants, companions, and spectators take part at their own risk. The organiser accepts no liability for injury, loss, or damage of any kind.
- The organiser reserves the right to make programme changes.

CATERING & ACCOMMODATION

Catering on site:

- Water is provided by the organiser.
- Food and drinks are also available at the adjacent Gasthof "Thüringer Hütte".

Sanitary facilities:

- Showers and toilets are available on the premises.

Accommodation (no group accommodation provided by the organiser):

- Oberhof offers ample accommodation at attractive summer rates (approx. 2 km from the venue).
- A caravan/motorhome pitch is available at the venue.
- Additional camping nearby: Camping Lütchensee, Am Stausee 9, 99330 Geratal.
